Travellers who left Rumania early in July 1950 gave the following reports of harvest prospects in various parts of that country:

a. Drought conditions have completely ruined all hopes for a harvest in the Dobrudja. In the district between Constanţa and Hârşova and in the Ialomiţa River valley between Ciulniţa and Călăraşi, in the Tulcea region, and in the country extending below Constanţa to the Bulgarian border the crops have been completely burned out.

b. A middling harvest is expected in Muntenia and Moldavia. A middling good harvest is expected along the Danube between Giurgiu and Turnu-Severin. A very good harvest, especially of wheat, is expected in the Bănat and in Transylvania.
